The Hon. Laura Gerber MP visited our club on the 15th of June to congratulate us in person on our successful application to the Gambling Community Benefit Fund, securing $21,660.00 for air conditioning upgrades.

Laura presented a novelty cheque and featured us on her social media to help promote our club.

THANK YOU

Laura

That's what Laura posted on Instagram!

lauragerbermp So proud to present the Gold Coast Stock Sport Club with a $21,660 cheque to upgrade their air-conditioning! 🌟

I also had the pleasure of joining them for their Winter Solstice Lunch — complete with delicious homemade non-alcoholic glühwein! 🍷

Community clubs like this are the heart of the southern Gold Coast. It's so important they have the facilities they need to support their incredible volunteers, members and guests.

This funding comes from the Gambling Community Benefit Fund, and I'm thrilled to see it making a real difference for local legends like these. 🍷 less

Since prehistory, the winter solstice has been a significant time of year in many cultures and has been marked by festivals and rites. This is because it is the point when the shortening of daylight hours is reversed and the daytime begins to lengthen again.

Estia Health

Our choir THE SINGKREIS, the ELANORA BELL RINGERS and our FOLK-DANCERS entertained the residents of the aged care home Estia Health Mudgeeraba on the 17th June 2025.

Estia Health

"While only minutes from the vibrant heart of the Gold Coast, Estia Health Mudgeeraba is a rural oasis set on six acres, surrounded by majestic gums and native wildlife.

It has been great to see the residents singing along, clapping and enjoying the performance of the choir.

After Vikki, Jenny and Karin (The Elanora Bell Ringers) delighted their audience with their skills with the bells, some of the residents had a go as well and loooved it.

The HAT DANCE

Accompanied by Nev alias Fritz on his accordion!

As always, our Hat Dancers caused a lot of laughter and applause from the audience!

Estia Health
